EATING A THAI MEAL

A visit to a Thai house or a restaurant for dinner begins with the warm welcome that is the hallmark of Thai hospitality.

Ideally, a Thai meal offers a combination of flavours: sweet, hot and sour. The Thai cook strives for a balance of flavours, textures and colours.

All of our dishes are cooked individually to order. So, if you have any special requests regarding how you would like your food to be prepared, please tell us when you order.

Customers can choose how spicy their meal will be.
